My experience

Fullstack developer

Centaurea (1 year 11 months)

I took part in developing of three web applications: company website, website for real estate, and web dashboard for IoT system with English-speaking customer, with whom I communicated through emails and chats. One of them created as ASP.NET Core web API with SPA front-end on the React.js, two others - monolith ASP.NET Core apps with Razor pages and Vue.js front-end, a third one created as ASP.NET Core web API with SPA front-end on the React.js.

Back-end developer

VEB Technologies (2 years 4 months)

I've took part in 3 projects: bank app for business with 3rd party services like factoring, proof-of-concept of cryptography key generator algorithm which protecting user bitcoin savings and tiny utility project for small business. On the first and second projects I was responsible for writing microservice asp.net app with docker support and code reviewing. For third one I wrote whole api by myself on node.js and delivered it before deadline. Also I have some experience with golang
